HERE'S WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT WHEN MEETING WITH AN ACADEMIC ADVISOR

Students are supported by a team of professional academic advisors. Academic advising teams are comprised of knowledgeable advisors who specialize in specific academic programs. Our advisors are committed to helping you reach your goals and achieve academic success. When working with an advisor, you can expect that advisor will:

- Be attentive and listen carefully to your questions and concerns.
- Collaborate with you to develop your academic and personal goals.
- Assist you in making academic decisions consistent with your interests, abilities, and goals.
- Provide thoughtful recommendations and resources based on your needs.
- Explain degree requirements and university policies and procedures.
- Assist you in understanding the purpose of higher education.
- Connect you to services provided by other departments when necessary or beneficial.
- Abide by FERPA laws to protect your information.
